

Bon Air Christian Church — Chesterfield County, VA

The Bon Air Christian Church—Christian Education Center located in Chesterfield County, Virginia was constructed in 2007 by Evans Construction, Inc. This 4,500 square foot project featured new educational classrooms with an attractive Fellowship Hall. As one of the historical buildings of Bon Air, special effort was placed in designing and constructing the addition to join and blend with the existing Church. The Architect on this project was Charles Aquino and Associates of Richmond, Virginia.
