

Virginia Commonwealth Student Commons—Phase III—Richmond, VA

The Student Commons Phase 3 at Virginia Commonwealth University in Richmond, Virginia project consisted of a 35,000 sf addition to the Student Commons Building consisting of offices and convention rooms; and 25,000 sf of renovation to the existing Commons Building. The renovation consisted of 2 new food courts, 350 seat auditorium, main lobby and the Online Store. The renovation was accomplished while maintaining one food court open at all times and uninterrupted student access to the Commons Building This was a fast-paced project which was completed in 18 months. The Architect on this project was Clark Nexsen from Norfolk, Virginia.

